

The Weekly Kentucky Tribune.

"THE UNION, THE CONSTITUTION, AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS."

VOL. XVII--No. 42.

DANVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, JULY 13, 1860.

WHOLE No. 873.

Professional Cards.

JAN. F. ZIMMERMAN,
Notary Public,

Examiner to take Depositions,

DANVILLE, KY.

AUTHORIZING to receive and certify acknowledgments of Deeds and other papers for me and the State of Kentucky, Alabama, Georgia, Connecticut, Georgia, Indiana, Iowa, Illinois, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New Hampshire, Ohio, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Vermont and Virginia.

Office—Court Clerk's Office, Henderson's Building, up stairs, over W. M. Morris's store.

March 30, 1860.

BOYLE & ANDERSON,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

DANVILLE, KY.

Will continue to Practice Law in partnership with Boyle and adjoining counties.

Mar 30, '60.

H. P. BOYLE. Dr. T. W. FOREMAN

DRS. FOREMAN & BOYLE

HAVING associated themselves together in

the Practice of Medicine, under their

joint professional services, in the various branches of their profession, to their friends of

Boyle and surrounding counties.

Offices—On Main street, over Thor's Shoe Store.

Jan 6, '60.

DR. H. P. BOYLE.

DR. T. W. FOREMAN

Dr. H. P. BOYLE.

Dr. T. W. FOREMAN

Having associated themselves together in

the Practice of Medicine, under their

joint professional services, in the various branches of their profession, to their friends of

Boyle and surrounding counties.

Offices—On Main street, over Thor's Shoe Store.

Jan 6, '60.

DR. H. P. BOYLE.

DR. T. W. FOREMAN

Dr. H. P. BOYLE.

Dr. T. W. FOREMAN

Having associated themselves together in

the Practice of Medicine, under their

joint professional services, in the various branches of their profession, to their friends of

Boyle and surrounding counties.

Offices—On Main street, over Thor's Shoe Store.

Jan 6, '60.

DR. H. P. BOYLE.

DR. T. W. FOREMAN

Having associated themselves together in

the Practice of Medicine, under their

joint professional services, in the various branches of their profession, to their friends of

Boyle and surrounding counties.

Offices—On Main street, over Thor's Shoe Store.

Jan 6, '60.

DR. H. P. BOYLE.

DR. T. W. FOREMAN

Having associated themselves together in

the Practice of Medicine, under their

joint professional services, in the various branches of their profession, to their friends of

Boyle and surrounding counties.

Offices—On Main street, over Thor's Shoe Store.

Jan 6, '60.

DR. H. P. BOYLE.

DR. T. W. FOREMAN

Having associated themselves together in

the Practice of Medicine, under their

joint professional services, in the various branches of their profession, to their friends of

Boyle and surrounding counties.

Offices—On Main street, over Thor's Shoe Store.

Jan 6, '60.

DR. H. P. BOYLE.

DR. T. W. FOREMAN

Having associated themselves together in

the Practice of Medicine, under their

joint professional services, in the various branches of their profession, to their friends of

Boyle and surrounding counties.

Offices—On Main street, over Thor's Shoe Store.

Jan 6, '60.

DR. H. P. BOYLE.

DR. T. W. FOREMAN

Having associated themselves together in

the Practice of Medicine, under their

joint professional services, in the various branches of their profession, to their friends of

Boyle and surrounding counties.

Offices—On Main street, over Thor's Shoe Store.

Jan 6, '60.

DR. H. P. BOYLE.

DR. T. W. FOREMAN

Having associated themselves together in

the Practice of Medicine, under their

joint professional services, in the various branches of their profession, to their friends of

Boyle and surrounding counties.

Offices—On Main street, over Thor's Shoe Store.

Jan 6, '60.

DR. H. P. BOYLE.

DR. T. W. FOREMAN

Having associated themselves together in

the Practice of Medicine, under their

joint professional services, in the various branches of their profession, to their friends of

Boyle and surrounding counties.

Offices—On Main street, over Thor's Shoe Store.

Jan 6, '60.

DR. H. P. BOYLE.

DR. T. W. FOREMAN

Having associated themselves together in

the Practice of Medicine, under their

joint professional services, in the various branches of their profession, to their friends of

Boyle and surrounding counties.

Offices—On Main street, over Thor's Shoe Store.

Jan 6, '60.

DR. H. P. BOYLE.

DR. T. W. FOREMAN

Having associated themselves together in

the Practice of Medicine, under their

joint professional services, in the various branches of their profession, to their friends of

Boyle and surrounding counties.

Offices—On Main street, over Thor's Shoe Store.

Jan 6, '60.

DR. H. P. BOYLE.

DR. T. W. FOREMAN

Having associated themselves together in

the Practice of Medicine, under their

joint professional services, in the various branches of their profession, to their friends of

Boyle and surrounding counties.

Offices—On Main street, over Thor's Shoe Store.

Jan 6, '60.

DR. H. P. BOYLE.

DR. T. W. FOREMAN

Having associated themselves together in

the Practice of Medicine, under their

joint professional services, in the various branches of their profession, to their friends of

Boyle and surrounding counties.

Offices—On Main street, over Thor's Shoe Store.

Jan 6, '60.

DR. H. P. BOYLE.

DR. T. W. FOREMAN

Having associated themselves together in

the Practice of Medicine, under their

joint professional services, in the various branches of their profession, to their friends of

Boyle and surrounding counties.

Offices—On Main street, over Thor's Shoe Store.

Jan 6, '60.

DR. H. P. BOYLE.

DR. T. W. FOREMAN

Having associated themselves together in

the Practice of Medicine, under their

joint professional services, in the various branches of their profession, to their friends of

Boyle and surrounding counties.

Offices—On Main street, over Thor's Shoe Store.

Jan 6, '60.

DR. H. P. BOYLE.

DR. T. W. FOREMAN

Having associated themselves together in

the Practice of Medicine, under their

joint professional services, in the various branches of their profession, to their friends of

Boyle and surrounding counties.

Offices—On Main street, over Thor's Shoe Store.

Jan 6, '60.

DR. H. P. BOYLE.

DR. T. W. FOREMAN

Having associated themselves together in

the Practice of Medicine, under their

joint professional services, in the various branches of their profession, to their friends of

Boyle and surrounding counties.

Offices—On Main street, over Thor's Shoe Store.

Jan 6, '60.

DR. H. P. BOYLE.

DR. T. W. FOREMAN

Having associated themselves together in

the Practice of Medicine, under their

joint professional services, in the various branches of their profession, to their friends of

Boyle and surrounding counties.

Offices—On Main street, over Thor's Shoe Store.

Jan 6, '60.

DR. H. P. BOYLE.

DR. T. W. FOREMAN

Having associated themselves together in

the Practice of Medicine, under their

joint professional services, in the various branches of their profession, to their friends of

Boyle and surrounding counties.

Offices—On Main street, over Thor's Shoe Store.

Jan 6, '60.

DR. H. P. BOYLE.

THE TRIBUNE.

JNO. F. ZIMMERMAN & SON, PUBLISHERS.

JAS. F. ZIMMERMAN, EDITOR.

DANVILLE:

FRIDAY.....JULY 13, 1860

NATIONAL UNION TICKET.

For President,
JOHN BELL,
of Tennessee.

For Vice President,
EDWARD EVERETT,
of Massachusetts.

THE PLATFORM.
The Union, the Constitution, and the Enforcement of the Laws."

Electoral Ticket,
For the STATE AT LARGE,
W. H. WADSWORTH, of Mass.
E. L. VANDIVER, of Wayne.

First District—E. T. BARBOUR.
Second District—L. LEAVELL.
Third District—W. M. SIMPSON.
Fourth District—W. H. HARRIS.
Fifth District—PHIL LEE.
Sixth District—W. C. BULLOCK.
Eighth District—JOHN M. HARLAN.
Ninth District—JOHN B. HUSTON.
Tenth District—W. S. RANKIN.

A meeting, which was all sorts of messy, was held at Lexington on Monday last. It was called as a Breckinridge meeting; but after the speakers of that faction were through, Roger Hanson (the gentleman reported by the Breckinridges to be on their side) was loudly called for and responded in a brief, pointed and eloquent speech. He stated that if there was but one man in Kentucky who would vote for Bell and Everett, he was that man—that he was for no sectional candidate—and least of all could he support the ticket nominated by the seceders at Baltimore, which he believed was the result of a movement having in view the dissolution of the Union.

At the close of Mr. Hanson's remarks, which were received with shouts of approbation, Gen. T. B. Flourney, of Ark., spoke in vindication of Douglas, and was plied to by James B. Clay. The Observer says the meeting furnished lots of fun, and if the scenes of Monday evening should be re-enacted, and due notice given beforehand, the parties could make a snug business of it, if they chose to put the tickets of admission at fifty cents a head, boys half price.

In Pennsylvania the Constitutional Union party is moving on steadily and enthusiastically. Union Clubs, pledged to the support of Bell and Everett, are being formed all over the State. Prominent men that have been connected with the Republican party because of their hostility to the Democracy, are enrolling themselves and addressing the Clubs, and urging the people everywhere to unite with the Constitutional Union party. Pittsburgh, Harrisburg, Lancaster, the home of President Buchanan, and other cities have each been the scene of immense gatherings and the speakers on the occasions were such men as Henry M. Fuller, Daniel R. Leach, Col. Seymour, E. C. Pease, J. H. Ervin, and others of like political eminence.—Among the mottoes on the banners, etc., at the Lancaster meeting, were "The Tennessee Bell will tell the death-knell of Secession where it is heard;"—"We want Statesmen, not Rail-Splitters;" "No faith in Rotten Rails;" "The Union is safe in the hands of Bell and Everett."

The aspirants in the Union party for the office of Clerk of the Court of Appeals have been requested to meet at Frankfort to-day, in order to make some amicable arrangement between themselves by which the party will have but one candidate in the field. We hope every one of them will attend the meeting, and if so, we doubt not that that some plan can be devised which will be satisfactory to all, and the party will cordially unite in support of whoever may be selected as the standard bearer.

We do not believe that any of the various gentlemen recommended for the Clerkship of the Court of Appeals will be a candidate for Vice President to-day, in order to make some amicable arrangement between themselves by which the party will have but one candidate in the field. We hope every one of them will attend the meeting, and if so, we doubt not that that some plan can be devised which will be satisfactory to all, and the party will cordially unite in support of whoever may be selected as the standard bearer.

Caleb Cushing, of Massachusetts, is one of the most accommodating politicians of whom we have any knowledge. He has been a Whig, a member of John Tyler's "corporal's guard," and a Democrat successively; and at Baltimore he presided over both the regular and succeeding Conventions. Caleb is determined to take care of himself.

"Occasional" writes the following to Forney's Press:

THE AUGUST ELECTIONS.—The August elections in the South and Southwest, will be very bitterly contested—Nelson and Quarles of Tennessee, Anderson and Moore of Kentucky, and W. Davis and Morrison Harris of Maryland, and others, are preparing for the coming contest with great industry—Bell was freely offered on the Avenue, this morning, that Bell and Everett would certainly carry Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina and Maryland.

THE GREAT SHOW.—On Tuesday next the famous DAN RICE, and the grand exhibition which bears his name, will arrive in Danville, and exhibit afternoon and night. Parties coming from a distance to the show, should try and get here in season to see the grand entertainment. Caleb Cushing, the editor of the Democratic press in Kentucky. So we presume, when the Convention meets on the 15th, they will nominate Mr. Root according to orders.

DISPOSITION OF CO-EDITORS.—The last number of the Lebanon Democrat contains the vocabulary of L. H. Noble, Esq., one of its editors. Andy Barnett, Esq., is now sole editor of the paper, and other once fashionable watering places, stated that they are completely deserted, and that the hotel proprietors exhibit the utmost tribulation at the prospect before them.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?—Old Joe Lane is pretty good authority with the Democracy, and we therefore invite the attention of our harmonious friends to the following declaration of old Joe:

"It is the fault of the Democratic party, in dodging principle, in dodging the constitution itself, that has brought the trouble upon the country and the party, that is experienced to-day."

Let it be remembered, then that the trouble which has been brought upon the country and the party, that is experienced to-day."

"I wish I was handsome," replied the fair damsel, "handsome as Queen Victoria."

"Jerusalem! what a wish!" replied Jonathan, "when you're handsome nuff now."

Items of the Canvass.

The Southern Monitor, a Democratic paper published at Philadelphia, and Capt. J. S. Jackson had both declared themselves for Breckinridge. We do not know upon what authority the statement was made, but it is sufficient to say that it is incorrect. There never were two truer men than Hanson and Jackson, and they are ready for good service in the cause of Bell and Everett. They join the Democracy, indeed! After fighting its heresies for a quarter of a century, it is not probable they would embrace it in all its deformity, just as it gets in the condition they have been trying to put it in all their lives.

OUR PLATFORM.—The Milledgeville (Ga.) Recorder, heartily espousing the cause of Bell and Everett, well says, that the Constitutional party has given to the country a platform upon which all honest, conservative, patriotic and equality-loving men from every section of our broad Union can stand. It is the "Consent of the Country" upon the principles of strict equality. "And the Enforcement of Laws," that makes us one people and one nation. We want, but we ask nothing more. We have the principles of our party in the principles of the broken Democracy are regular.

The telegraph announces the formal acceptance of Maj. Breckinridge of the Presidential nomination. His letter is a long one.

THE Bell and Everett men of New-Port, raised a handsome pole on the 4th inst. Telling speeches were made by Messrs. Anderson and Finnell. The crowd was popular and enthusiastic.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer, a Douglass organ, openly rejoices that the Black Republicans of Oregon have defeated the re-election of Joe Lane to the U. S. Senate.

THE Breckinridge party is considerably stronger than the Douglass party in New Hampshire, while the two together do not constitute more than a third of the voters of the State.

The telegraph reports the synopsis of a speech made by President Buchanan at Washington. He favors Breckinridge, but he thinks neither of the two is a considerable number who cast by States only partially represented whose few remaining delegates cast the full vote of the State. In another case, the delegation, being full, voted under the rule unit, against the choice of a considerable number of its members, so that of the delegates actually preferring Douglass as a candidate, probably there was not even a plurality—153—of a full Convention. Yet we are told that he is the regular nominee of the party.

He was it with the Convention which nominated Breckinridge? We are free to say the case was no better, no nearer approach to regularity being made. In fact, we make no claim that the Convention itself was regular, although in its composition, in the number of States it fairly represented, and in the legitimacy of the delegations it was equal to the other. But still the nominations were not made in accordance with party usage, and hence we have at this moment no Democratic candidates in the field who can set up a claim to exact regularity.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer says: "The Douglass meeting was the largest ever held in Covington. It exceeded that of the Seceders, last Saturday, so much that the latter are almost ashamed of their demonstration. The Democracy of Northern Kentucky are largely in favor of Douglass and Johnson."

The Douglas and Breckinridge Democrats are now represented at Washington by separate newspaper organs, separate central committees, and separate organizations, having no common sympathies and avowing the most bitterly hostile opinions and aims.

THE Philadelphia Journal, a new Republican paper, is emulating Amos Kendall in collating political omens. It has found out that on the very night of the 22d of June last, when the Baltimore Convention was severed in twain, Prof. Bond, of Harvard, discovered a red comet.

IT is stated that Mr. James Guthrie, of Louisville, is neither for Breckinridge nor Douglass,—regarding both the men and their parties as sectional, and unworthy the support of sound, national men.

MARYLAND.—The Baltimore correspondent of the Philadelphia Enquirer says:

"It is a fact palpable to all observers, that the Democracy is much disheartened. None of their anticipated triumphs, as their ranks are thus broken. In any event, Bell and Everett will carry Baltimore and Maryland by an overwhelming majority, now more than ever.

OREGON ELECTION.—Gen. JOE LANE, president of the State, have declared for Vice PRESIDENT CANDIDATE FOR VICE PRESIDENT DEPENDENT IN HIS OWN STATE.—The news by the Overland Mail brings intelligence that the election in Oregon had resulted in the success of the Republican and the anti-Lecompton candidates for the Legislature. All parties, it is said, concur in electing the 28 to 30 anti-Lecompton and Republican candidates, but, assuredly, no man of political mind believes such a Southern sectional ticket can carry a corporal's guard in the North less much carry a single Northern State. How, then, can the disunionists hope to elect their ticket? The fact is, it cannot be elected—it don't deserve to be elected, and, what is more, it won't be elected. The personal hostility and political jealousy growing out of the opposition to Douglass has given this ticket a little more respectability among politicians, than attached to the Troupe and Quiteman ticket in 1852, but the honest, patriotic people, the thing don't take any better than the abortion of the fire-eaters in 1852.

BELL AND ALLEN.—The seventy thousand patriots throughout Kentucky who supported Bell and Allen in the Gubernatorial canvass of 1859, will be glad to know that the eloquent voices of those gallant leaders, will on all proper occasions be lifted for Bell and Everett, and their influence at all times exerted in behalf of the Union, the Constitution and enforcement of the laws.

ALLEN, in his letter to the same Committee, says:

"You are pleased to say that 'the people desire to hear from me at this eventful crisis.' I can only say that, whatever a humble man as I am can do towards rebuking the sectionalism of the Republicans, and the corruption of Democratic place-men, as well as for the advancement of truth, patriotism, and the perpetuation of our Union, shall at the following is an extract from the letter of Mr. Bell to the Committee of Invitation of the Union Meeting held in Louisville:

"Caleb Cushing, of Massachusetts, is one of the most accommodating politicians of whom we have any knowledge. He has been a Whig, a member of John Tyler's 'corporal's guard,' and a Democrat successively; and at Baltimore he presided over both the regular and succeeding Conventions. Caleb is determined to take care of himself.

"'Occasional' writes the following to Forney's Press:

THE AUGUST ELECTIONS.—The August elections in the South and Southwest, will be very bitterly contested—Nelson and Quarles of Tennessee, Anderson and Moore of Kentucky, and W. Davis and Morrison Harris of Maryland, and others, are preparing for the coming contest with great industry—Bell was freely offered on the Avenue, this morning, that Bell and Everett would certainly carry Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina and Maryland.

THE GREAT SHOW.—On Tuesday next the famous DAN RICE, and the grand exhibition which bears his name, will arrive in Danville, and exhibit afternoon and night. Parties coming from a distance to the show, should try and get here in season to see the grand entertainment. Caleb Cushing, the editor of the Democratic press in Kentucky. So we presume, when the Convention meets on the 15th, they will nominate Mr. Root according to orders.

DISPOSITION OF CO-EDITORS.—The last number of the Lebanon Democrat contains the vocabulary of L. H. Noble, Esq., one of its editors. Andy Barnett, Esq., is now sole editor of the paper, and other once fashionable watering places, stated that they are completely deserted, and that the hotel proprietors exhibit the utmost tribulation at the prospect before them.

LETTERS FROM SARATOGA, NEWPORT, AND OTHER ONCE FASHIONABLE WATERING PLACES, STATED THAT THEY ARE COMPLETELY DESERTED, AND THAT THE HOTEL PROPRIETORS EXHIBIT THE UTMOST TROBULATION AT THE PROSPECT BEFORE THEM.

No Regular Democratic Candidates in the Field.

The New York Journal of Commerce, perhaps the ablest and most influential Democratic paper in the country, thus far, has come out for Bell and Everett.

THE Breckinridge and Lane men do not know upon what authority the statement was made, but it is sufficient to say that it is incorrect. There never were two truer men than Hanson and

Jackson, and they are ready for good service in the cause of Bell and Everett.

They join the Democracy, indeed!

After fighting its heresies for a quarter of a century, it is not probable they would embrace it in all its deformity, just as it gets in the condition they have been trying to put it in all their lives.

THE telegraph announces the formal acceptance of Maj. Breckinridge of the Presidential nomination. His letter is a long one.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer, a Douglass

organ, openly rejoices that the Black

Republicans of Oregon have defeated the re-election of Joe Lane to the U. S.

Senate.

THE Breckinridge party is considerably stronger than the Douglass party in New Hampshire, while the two together do not constitute more than a third of the voters of the State.

THE telegraph reports the synopsis

of a speech made by President Buchanan at Washington. He favors Breckinridge, but he thinks neither of the two

is a considerable number who cast by

States only partially represented whose

few remaining delegates cast the full

vote of the State.

THE telegraph reports the synopsis

of a speech made by President Buchan-

an at Washington. He favors Breckin-

ridge, but he thinks neither of the two

is a considerable number who cast by

States only partially represented whose

few remaining delegates cast the full

vote of the State.

THE telegraph reports the synopsis

of a speech made by President Buchan-

an at Washington. He favors Breckin-

ridge, but he thinks neither of the two

is a considerable number who cast by

States only partially represented whose

few remaining delegates cast the full

vote of the State.

THE telegraph reports the synopsis

of a speech made by President Buchan-

an at Washington. He favors Breckin-

ridge, but he thinks neither of the two

is a considerable number who cast by

States only partially represented whose

few remaining delegates cast the full

vote of the State.

THE telegraph reports the synopsis

of a speech made by President Buchan-

an at Washington. He favors Breckin-

ridge, but he thinks neither of the two

is a considerable number who cast by

States only partially represented whose

few remaining delegates cast the full

vote of the State.

THE telegraph reports the

THE TRIBUNE.

Danville

FRIDAY, JULY 12, 1860.

National Union Bell Ringers.

This popular troupe's contemporary, will give a series of the most grand and brilliant entertainments during the next six months, ever given in this country. They will visit every part of the country, from the snow-capt mountains of the North, to where the sun is laved by the dashing, silvery waters of the Gulf, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific, visiting every city, town, village, hamlet and family in the land, thrilling the souls of all with the patriotic emotions, which fired the souls of our sires of the Revolution.

Prominent in Daniel Webster's celebrated composition "The Union—now and forever—one and inseparable" is the great Bell of Tennessee, giving unusual effect to the piece, and enabling the Ringers to render it in magnificent style.

In the "Kansas-Nebraska Overture," the grand notes of the Tennessee Bell, swell and peal most gloriously above all the rest, its grand echoes reverberating the Union over, exciting the enthusiasm of the people, and reminding them of Bell's independence, which the patriots of '60 were so proud of.

But its harmonious tones now ring out clearly in the political atmosphere, high above the din of contending faction and main, and discordant notes of other doings and becomings popular with the people where ever it (Everest) goes.

The concluding Concert will be given on the fourth of March next, when a requia will be performed in honor of the cause of the so-called Democratic party, the attending physicians having informed the patient and the public, that owing to the severity of the convulsions, by which it has been seized, it cannot possibly survive that date. On that interesting occasion, the noble Bell of Tennessee, will "roll the knell" of the departed spirit of Democracy, as by that time it will be conceded, if not before, that it has "the ring of the true metal," and that were the Union searched over, a better selection could not be made.

A BELL AND EVERETT BELL.—A bell of about 1,600 pounds weight was cast in Boston last week. It was ordered by the Massachusetts State Committee of the Constitutional Union Party, and it is designed for the use at the political gatherings of the party, during the present Presidential campaign.

The editor of the Murfreesboro' (Tenn.) Telegraph says that the friends of Breckinridge and Lane and the friends of Douglas and Johnson find it utterly impossible to get up the slightest feeling in that quarter. He says they see that there is no hope whatever for their favorites, and he adds—"a large number of Democrats in this region will vote for Bell and Everett as the only possible chance to beat the Black Republicans."

W. I. MOORE,
Merchant Tailor,
DANVILLE, KY.

CAN be found at his old stand, and has now received and opened his SPRING STOCK Consisting of Cloths, Cassimeres, and VESTHINGS, Of the latest styles, embracing a large variety of patterns.

GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS Suits, Collars, Cravats, Scarfs, Drawers, Handkerchiefs, Suspenders, Umbrellas, Spring Style Hats, &c., &c.

A word everything in the line of Gents wear, and for sale at reasonable rates.

W. I. MOORE
Danville, march 30, '60

HOUSE ROOFING!

The subscriber would inform the good citizens of Mercer, Lincoln, Boyle, and adjoining counties, that he is prepared with a good stock of ROOFING TIN, And First Rate Workmen, which will endeavor to put on the most substantial Water and Fire Proof Tin Roof.

Equal to any quality, and superior to any put on with patent machines. He pledges himself to have all his work done in the most substantial and workmanlike manner, by experienced hands.

Orders from a distance promptly attended to.

CROKE'S NEVER FAIL, Two or three applications will cure the worst

Chronic Diseases, no success for Cures, Elixirs, or any other Cures. Nothing is better for Burns and Sores. It has no equal for Tetter or Ring-Worm, and if used on a Fresh Cut, it never gets sore, but heals up in an incredibly short space of time.

CROKE'S NEVER FAIL, The notes and accounts of GEORGE W. HENRY and JOHN C. HENRY, deceased, in my hands for collection, and must be settled immediately. Indifference cannot be given and should not be asked, as it is necessary to settle my both estates as early as possible.

H. C. MOCK, Adm'r. Jan 20, '60

BOOK BINDING.
A. C. KEENON,
FRANKFORT, KY.

GIVES his whole attention to the good business at his old stand on Second Street, and has now received and opened his Merchandise, furnished with Record books ruled to any pattern with or without printed heads.

Particular attention given to Binding Books and Re-binding Books. Orders left with L. N. Zimmerman, at the Post Office, will be attended to.

A. C. KEENON,
Frankfort, Ky., March 30, '60

WOOL CARDING
MANUFACTURING.

I AM prepared to card WOOL into Rags or Manufacture it into NEGRO JAMES and LINSEY. I am also buying WOOL either washed or unwashed for which I am paying Cash or exchanging Jams and Linsey for it, or when I have a good supply of rags, may 4, '60

J. CROKE, Agent.

ROCHESTER & MCNEILL,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL
GROCERS, COMMISSION AND PRODUCE
MERCHANTS,
Main Street, above Third,
DANVILLE, KY.

We have a small House of the same character in Lexington, Ky., which we would like the attention of the public.

March 30, '60

AT THE OLD STAND!

GILLIS & HARNEY.

We are now receiving our Importation of

Spring and Summer,

Hardware, Cutlery,

GUNS AND PISTOLS,

Iron and Nails,

Carpenter's Tools,

Blacksmith's Tools,

With Every Variety of

BUILDING MATERIAL:

Chopping Axes,

Broad Axes,

Shovels and Spades,

Knives and Forks,

Screws and Shears,

Locks and Latches,

Cotton and Wool Bars,

Ride Barrels,

Gum Locks.

Gun Tools,

Hinges and Screws.

In addition, we will especially call the attention of country dealers to our stock of

BOOTS AND SHOES,

Of every style, quality, consisting of

Men and Boys' Kip, Wax, Calf and Goat Boots

" Calf and Buff Oxford Ties,

" Calf and Kid Boots,

Ladies' and Men's Kip, Goat, Calf, Kid and

Leather Footwear.

French and American prints,

And a variety of other

DRESS GOODS,

To numerous to mention.

Linen & Cotton Goods,

Of every grade and description,

Laces Ribbons, Cloves, Hosiery,

Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings,

Bonnets, Hats and Caps,

BOOTS AND SHOES,

And all other articles which I have usually kept for sale.

Carpets, Oil Cloth and Straw Matting,

A large and new stock, of beautiful styles.

CLOTHES,

GLASS & QUEENSWARE.

Of Fashionable Styles, suitable for

Spring and Summer Wear, and of superior manufacture.

My present stock has been bought low, and will be sold on

FAVORABLE TERMS,

As such Goods can be bought in any house in Central Kentucky. I invite all to call in and see my new stock.

W. C. LUCAS.

Danville, apr. 6, '60

CROKE'S ELECTRIC OIL.

THE cures performed by this Medicine are so wonderful and instantaneous, so satisfactory and mitigating of human ill, as to call for its use in every public institution for the sick and suffering.

Its effects are to look well into the well attested merits, the simple efficacy of this Electric Oil. Its effects are so astonishing as to resemble those of miraculous cures in ancient times spoken of in the Scriptures, as performed by anointing with oil.

CROKE'S ELECTRIC OIL cures Earache.

CROKE'S ELECTRIC OIL cures Deafness.

CROKE'S ELECTRIC OIL cures Eyes.

CROKE'S ELECTRIC OIL cures Old Sores.

CROKE'S ELECTRIC OIL cures Fresh Cuts.

CROKE'S ELECTRIC OIL cures Seized Head.

CROKE'S ELECTRIC OIL cures Frost Bites.

CROKE'S ELECTRIC OIL cures Ring Worm.

CROKE'S ELECTRIC OIL cures Tetter.

CROKE'S ELECTRIC OIL cures Chaps.

CROKE'S ELECTRIC OIL cures Burne.

CROKE'S ELECTRIC OIL cures Scalds.

CROKE'S ELECTRIC OIL cures Piles.

CROKE'S ELECTRIC OIL cures Saddle Sores.

CROKE'S ELECTRIC OIL cures Collar Sores.

CROKE'S ELECTRIC OIL cures Scratches.

CROKE'S ELECTRIC OIL cures all FLESH WOUNDS and CUTANEous ERUPTIONS in man or beast.

Two or three applications will cure the worst Chronic Diseases, no success for Cures, Elixirs, or any other Cures. Nothing is better for Burns and Sores. It has no equal for Tetter or Ring-Worm, and if used on a Fresh Cut, it never gets sore, but heals up in an incredibly short space of time.

CROKE'S NEVER FAIL, The notes and accounts of GEORGE W. HENRY and JOHN C. HENRY, deceased, in my hands for collection, and must be settled immediately. Indifference cannot be given and should not be asked, as it is necessary to settle my both estates as early as possible.

H. C. MOCK, Adm'r. Jan 20, '60

FRANKLIN TYPE AND BOOKBINDER FOUNDRY

135 Main Street, Between 4th and 5th Sts.,

CINCINNATI, OHIO.

WOULD call the attention of the citizens of Danville and vicinity, to a

FIRE PROOF ROOF,

Offered at a reasonable price.

For Orders from a distance promptly attended to.

FRANKLIN, DECEMBER 10, '60

SPRING & SUMMER IMPORTATIONS!

New Clothing Cheaper than Old.

M. LEVENSON

GREETED his old friends and customers with

A new stock of every kind of

BOOKS, MUSIC, PATENT MEDICINE,

PRINTING, PAINTING, &c.

Also, Elephant Skin, Sealfoot, and

Lard Oil, Address, either

C. R. HASKIN, A/c or A. G. HODGES, Treas'r.

91 Walnut Street, CINCINNATI.

Frankfort, Ky., March 30, '60

Wool Carding

MANUFACTURING.

I AM prepared to card WOOL into Rags

or Manufacture it into NEGRO JAMES and LINSEY.

I am also buying WOOL either washed or unwashed for which I am paying

Cash or exchanging Jams and Linsey for it, or when I have a good supply of rags, may 4, '60

J. CROKE, Agent.

DANVILLE, KY.

And sold by all Druggists in medicine and by apothecaries.

CROKE'S ELECTRIC OIL.

With all Aches and Pains immediately subsided.

CROKE'S NEVER FAIL.

cures Diarrhea.

CROKE'S NEVER FAIL cures Earache.

CROKE'S NEVER FAIL cures Toxochore.

CROKE'S NEVER FAIL cures Jawache.

CROKE'S NEVER FAIL cures Neuralgia.

CROKE'S NEVER FAIL cures Rheumatism.

CROKE'S NEVER